

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let me entertain you!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts

Ask your partner:

- How many forms of entertainment (movies, television, etc.) can you identify?
- What form do you prefer? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about free time activities.
- I can describe the quality of an object or a person.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

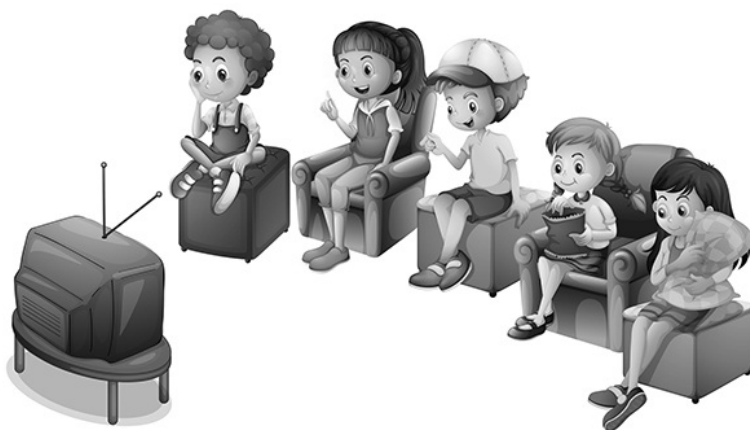

Let's Explore!

In this article, Sally enters the world of entertainment, like movies, plays, ballet* or opera**.

* Another word for "play" is live theater.

 A "ballet" is a story told through dance.

 An "opera" is a story told entirely through music.

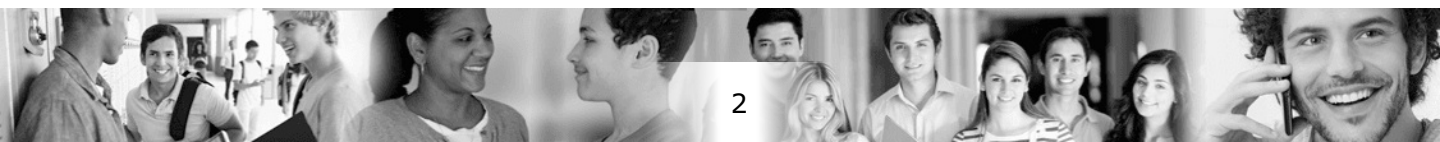

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

One meaning of the word entertain is to warmly welcome a person into your home. Every time we eagerly watch a movie, a play, or a television show, we enter a different kind of house – the house of imagination.

One of the most popular forms of entertainment is watching movies. A good movie can make us laugh and cry, frighten, and surprise us, all in about two hours. Special effects can mysteriously bring the most outrageous aliens to our planet, make the tiniest animals speak cheerfully and suddenly cause the wildest storms. They show us the best outcomes for the future, but they also display the worst scenarios.

Live theater also remains a form of entertainment that continues to draw crowds. On the stage in front of the audience, performers make a play, musical, opera, or ballet come alive. There is nothing like the moments before the curtain rises and the performance begins. It is true that the stage is a world of its own.

There is something for everyone!

Let's practice!

Let's talk about entertainment!

Instructions: Draw a line to match the words in Column A with the words or expression in Column B.

Column A

1. Movie
2. Special effects
3. Play
4. Musical
5. Opera
6. Ballet

Column B

- a. Live theater
- b. A story told on stage, with some music
- c. A story told on stage, only through music
- d. A story told through dance
- e. The use of technology in entertainment
- f. Film

Let's practice!

Do you like to entertain? Do you like to be entertained?

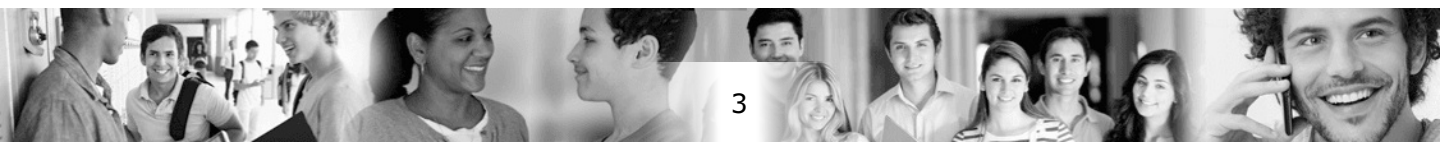

Instructions: Proofread the sentence. Cross out the incorrect word. Rewrite the correct sentence below.

1. One meaning of the word entertain is to warm welcome a person into your home.

2. Every time we eager watch a movie, a play, or a television show, we enter the house of imagination.

3. Special effects can mysterious bring the most outrageous aliens to our planet.

4. They make the tiniest animals speak cheerful and sudden cause the wildest storms.

Extension Activity

Discuss different forms and examples of entertainment with a partner.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- With a partner, discuss different forms of entertainment. Ask your partner which form of entertainment he or she prefers.
- Try to name 5 different examples (name of movie, play, etc.) of each form of entertainment.
- Complete the table below with the examples.
- Discuss which example is the best in each category.
- Circle the one you chose.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I discuss different forms of entertainment.

☐ ☐

I write a list of examples.

☐ ☐

I choose which one is the best and discuss why.

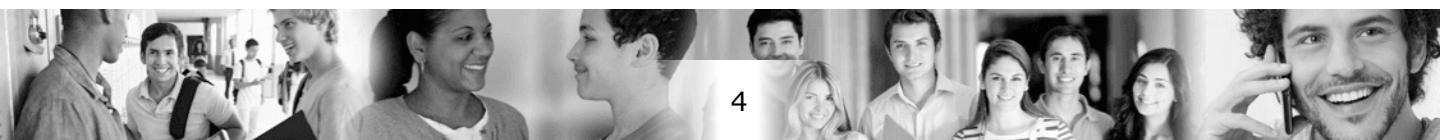

☐ ☐

Movies	Plays	Operas	Musicals	Ballets

Target Words

- entertainment (noun): a performance people enjoy watching
e.g. One of the most popular forms of entertainment is watching movies.
- imagination (noun): creative thought e.g. Every time we watch a movie, we use our imagination.
- special effects (noun): scenes for a movie or television show that involve the use of technology to make something unusual happen
e.g. Special effects can bring the most outrageous aliens to our planet.
- to draw crowds (expression): bring people to see something, like a performance
e.g. Live theater also continues to draw crowds.
- scenario (noun): future situation
e.g. Science fiction movies show us the best and the worst scenarios for the future.
- play (noun): a story told on a stage by live actors in front of an audience
e.g. On the stage, performers make a play come alive.
- musical (noun): a play with some music
e.g. I enjoyed the musical Les Misérables. Have you seen it?

Learning Points

Superlatives

You use a superlative adjectives to compare something to a group of two or more things. Remember that a comparative, on the other hand compares something to another thing.

For regular adjectives that are one syllable, you usually add the before the adjective and -est to the adjective to make the superlative form.

For regular adjectives of two or more syllables, you usually add the most before the adjective. Find examples of regular superlatives in the chart below.

Irregular adjectives are unpredictable in their superlative forms. Common irregular adjectives are good and bad. Find their superlatives in the chart below.

Adjective	Superlative
good	the best
bad	the worst
tiny	the tiniest
wild	the wildest
beautiful	the most beautiful
outrageous	the most outrageous

Examples:

- One of the most popular forms of entertainment is watching movies.
- Special effects can make the tiniest animals speak, cause the wildest storms and show us the best and the worst scenarios for the future.

Learning Points

Adverbs of Manner

Adverbs of manner tell us how something happens. Sometimes an adverb of manner is placed before a verb + object to add emphasis.

Example:

- Every time we eagerly watch a movie ...

It is possible to find a sentence with more than one adverb, and each placed in a different position.

Example:

- Special effects can mysteriously bring the most outrageous aliens to our planet, make the tiniest animals speak cheerfully and suddenly cause the wildest storms.

Many adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective:

Examples:

mysterious – mysteriously

cheerful – cheerfully

sudden – suddenly

Some adverbs, like basically or generally, are often placed at the beginning of the sentence. You use a comma after the adverb.

Examples:

- One meaning of the word entertain is to warmly welcome a person into your home.
- Movies can mysteriously bring the most outrageous aliens to our planet.

