Let's Start!

Are you an enthusiast of kite-flying?

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Have you seen a kite-flying festival?
- Would you like to see it? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about free time activities.
- I can talk about people's habits.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

Sally continues her article on kite-flying. What do you think about this leisure activity?

* The word "leisure" may be difficult to spell and pronounce. It is pronounced lee-jure.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Have you ever heard the expression "go fly a kite?" Although it used to mean "go away", kite-flying has gradually become a very popular leisure activity. On a sunny day at the beach, you will usually see people flying kites.

People often tend to visit some of the new kite stores that are regularly opening in big cities around the world. They can also subscribe to some of the many kite magazines that are readily available for kite lovers. Whenever they get a chance, kite lovers also participate in lively discussion groups on the Internet. Besides that, kite-flying festivals are being attended yearly by hundreds of people from around the world.

Kite lovers always make a point of using kites for many reasons, including sports, art or religious ceremonies. The fun, safe, and creative sport of kite-flying seems to be one of the most positive sports today. So, next time anyone tells you to go fly a kite, maybe you should!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Adverbs of Frequency

Adverbs of frequency (always, usually, never, etc.) say how often something happens. Sometimes the adverb specifies the exact frequency of the action, like yearly or daily.

They are usually placed before the verb. With verb tenses that have two parts, like the Present Continuous tense, you put the adverbs of frequency between the auxiliary verb and the main verb.

Adverb	How often?
always	100%
usually	60%
rarely	10%
never	0%

Examples:

- People often tend to visit some of the new kite stores that are regularly opening in big cities around the world.
- Kite lovers always make a point of using kites for many reasons.

Learning Points

Adverbs of Manner

Adverbs of manner are used to talk about how something is done.

When a verb has no object (intransitive verb), the adverb of manner often comes immediately after it.

Example:

- Kite lovers participate enthusiastically.

Adverbs of manner can also be used after infinitives.

Example:

- It's important to drive carefully.

Take into account that we can form adverbs from adjectives by adding -ly, and when the adjective ends in y, change it to -ily.

ready – readily

Example:

- They can also subscribe to some of the many kite magazines that are readily available for kite lovers.

The adjectives fast, hard, well and straight do not change when they become adverbs.
